

Letter of Recommendation

U Zagrebu, 26.09.2017.

For Mislav Jakšić:

If I had to describe Mislav in one sentence, I would say he is a delightful young person.

I've worked and socialised with Mislav for the last 4 months. I have experienced him as an exceptionally smart young man who loves to learn and what he learns, he learns with passion, not because he will be graded – which is very rare. He experiences learning not as a burden but as a challenge to overcome. Each and every job which requires training and study will be of interest to him.

He is an enjoyable interlocutor. During conversation, it will become apparent he is worldly, interested in many topics – from the current state of society and living conditions in different countries to economic theory. A positive attitude and readiness to find a solution when a problem arises are Mislav's virtues which make him a handful of people with which I like to socialise.

Mislav is exceptionally mindful and always ready to help. On top of that, he is clever, pleasant, cheerful and above all else, his conduct is highly cultured. It was my pleasure to work and socialise with Mislav.
